FOREWORD

O

UR AIM HAS BEEN TO RECORD AS

ACCURATELY AS POSSIBLE THE EVENTS OF A COL-LEGE YEAR, AND TO CONSERVE THE BEAUTY OF

ASSOCIATIONS FOR FUTURE REMINISCENCES. OUR

PRINCIPAL PROBLEMS HAVE BEEN TO DEVELOP

BEAUTY FROM SIMPLICITY AND TO INCORPORATE

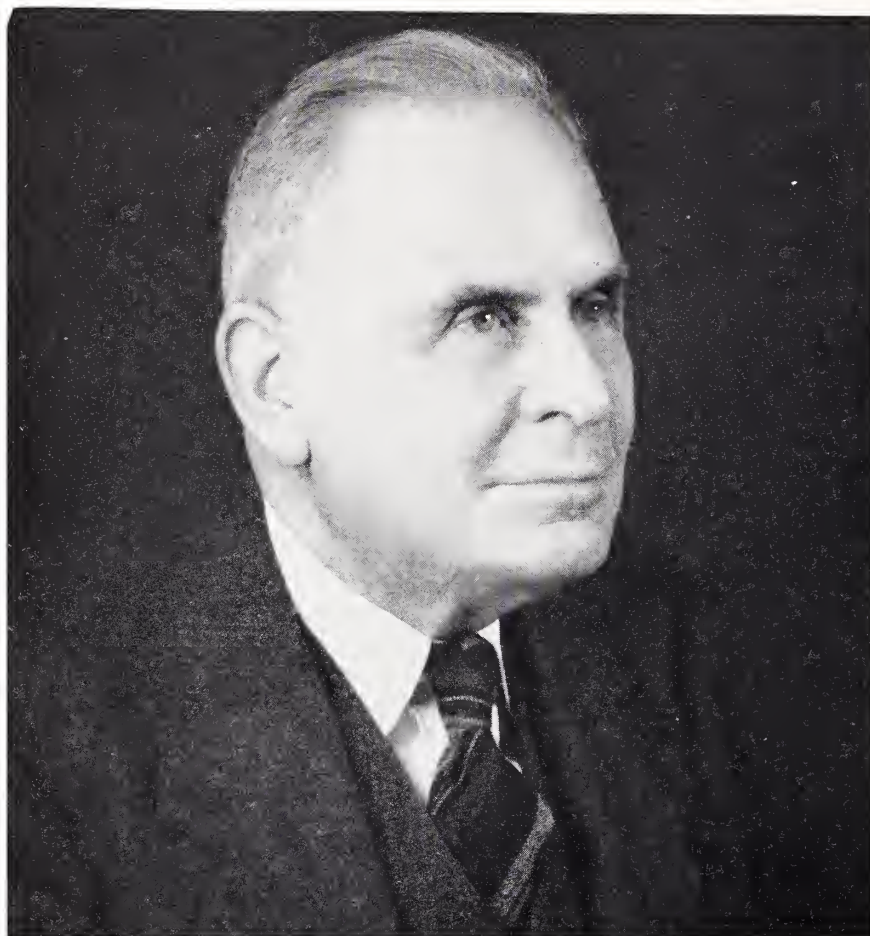

AS MUCH ORIGINALITY AS POSSIBLE WITH LIMITED

FINANCES. NOW OUR TASK IS COMPLETED; IT HAS

BEEN FUN BUT NOT EASY. THE BOOK IS YOURS—BE CONSIDERATE IN YOUR JUDGMENT.

THE STAFF

MR. THOMAS H. HARMAN

The Highlander Staff deems it an honor to dedicate this publication of the Highlander to Mr. T. H. Harman whose fifty years of loyal friendship and whose thirty years of untiring service as Trustee have been filled with thought and help for us all, faculty and students who have lived on the campus.

PRESIDENT A. A. PAGE

B.A., M.A.

For 8 years Mr. Page has successfully guided Pikeville College through its hardships as well as its prosperity. He is continuing his able leadership through the school's greatest period of physical expansion and the largest student enrollment in its history.

The pleasure of achieving is greater than the achievement. There will come a time when we shall reminiscence, "I'd like to see my roommate again! He was great. I wonder how the faculty looks now, and shall I say, 'It might have been' ".

FACULTY SNAPS

T H E B E A R S

Mr Fetzer has given Pikeville College a fine squad and has measured up to all expectations. James Brooks shows great promise in developing into a great forward. Bill Mullins quite, unassuming, steady, with his favorite two-hand jump shot has proved to be an asset to the team. Jack Wells is an aggressive player, good on offensive or defensive and has added much to the spirit of the Bears. Bob Estep another promising freshman who played with Oak Ridge, Tennessee last year is up and coming. Harold Hibbitts, with his fine spirit and height gives him ability as a tip off man and a good defensive player. Maurice Clark's knowledge of basketball has made him a valuable man to the coach. Bill Ray, a constant player with plenty of fight. James Conley, a hard fighter and a willing worker Harold Senter has a good hook shot and adept at guarding his man. Burnett Terry, a speedy, clever ball handler who has been dubbed "Snake" for his ability to weave in and out among opposing players. Larry Keathley, a guard, is the foremost defensive man on the team for his height and is good on driving in for crisp shots. Joe Marinaro, a freshman who has good prospects for a guarding position next year. Claude Mills, a good guard has an effective hook shot. Noah Newsome, a guard who specializes on feints and driving in hard. Lew Wallace Friend has been named "Cob" by the Bears because of his good managing. Paul Shaw, not in picture, is scrappy, daring, a fighter, Paul has the stuff that it takes to get along.

CHEERLEADERS

Homer Baldrige is long and lanky which adds to his ability as a cheer leader. Betty Davis whose past experience as a cheer leader and her interest in the team makes her take to the floor and yell. Clay Sayers, without him, the arobatics would be incomplete. Mabel Hall has a pleasing personality and team spirit which has helped to make the Bears successful.

ADVISER

KATHARINE GRISWOLD

You saw your name in the paper? Then we've ten guesses.

YOU MUST HAVE BEEN

a basketball star,
 actor in a play,
 on the honor list,
 eligible for Chatter-Chatter,
 delegate to a Conference,
 over enthusiastic about spring,
 critical of Derriana's wall paper,
 a club officer,

or just one of those necessarily expressive souls in English 112.

Anyway, our college newspaper, THE RECORD, attempts to cover everything from broken hips to broken hearts. It expresses our opinion about ourselves, you, and the world. When it runs short of facts, it publishes verse; when it runs out of verse, it includes advertisements.

Here's to THE RECORD! May it record only truth, but do it in a fascinating way!

 SUE PENDERGRASS . . . . . Sophomore

The purpose of the Student Council is to plan and work out programs whereby the Academy will benefit. It plans projects such as building walks, planting shrubs to beautify the landscape around the buildings, etc. Money for such projects is given to the Student Council by the school. One of its plans has been to publish pamphlets advertising the basketball games. This one has always paid for itself and usually had some money left over for other projects.

This Student Council was appointed by school authorities and, as such, has turned out to be worth while. It represents well the Academy students and their ideas.
